Twitter will take action based on three broad categories: 1. Misleading information 2. Disputed claims 3. Unverified claims

Each of the following tasks in this HIT ask you to read a section of the Twitter rules, read an actual tweet, and then moderate the content based on your understanding of the Twitter rules.

While false or misleading content can take many different forms, Twitter will take action based on three broad categories:

1. Misleading information - statements or assertions that have been confirmed to be false or misleading by subject-matter experts, such as public health authorities.

2. Disputed claims - statements or assertions in which the accuracy, truthfulness, or credibility of the claim is contested or unknown.

3. Unverified claims - information (which could be true or false) that is unconfirmed at the time it is shared.
